VOLUNTEER GRATEFUL TO DELIVER

It had always been my dream to volunteer for Alameda Meals on Wheels (AMOW) when I no longer had a full-time job. I recently ended my 36-year career with Girls Inc and am gratefully living my dream.

During the Shelter in Place at the height of the pandemic, I saw an ad in the Alameda Sun that AMOW needed volunteer drivers to relieve the current drivers who were in the high risk/vulnerable age group. I called right away to be put on the list. I started on May 20th, 2020 and I will never forget my first day. I went to the wrong building. Several codes to enter buildings didn’t work. I was sweating. My glasses fogged up from wearing my new unfamiliar and unsettling face mask. Intercoms did not work. I delivered a meal to the wrong person and had to go back to get it when I realized the mistake. I thought to myself, “what have I signed up for?” When I finally finished my route and was the last one back, Peri asked me “How did it go and do you want to come back next Wednesday?” I eagerly replied “Yes!” It was horribly anxiety ridden and wonderfully fulfilling. I knew I could do better the next week and couldn’t wait to try again. I was not going to give up on my dream! Now, Wednesdays are my favorite day of the week!

Currently, due to the Covid precautions and restrictions, we leave the meals in bags hung on door knobs. I was lucky enough to get to see a man named Bob every Wednesday in his apartment lobby. He was a faithful Raider and A’s fan and always thanked me with a smile for bringing him his meal. Sadly, Bob passed away recently. I miss talking to him. I shine a smile every time I pass his building on Shoreline Drive.

I often write little notes to the people on my route. I have received a few thank you notes back, which really touch my heart and make my volunteer time worthwhile and rewarding.

BRINGING SMILES: VOLUNTEER LINDA WILLIAMS

Spurred on to volunteer by her church, St. Joseph Basilica, Linda Williams began delivering meals for AMOW more than 19 years ago. While she enjoyed making the food deliveries, Linda realized that her favorite part of being an AMOW volunteer was meeting and talking with the meal recipients. “I tried to make sure everyone still got their meal while it was hot, but I was often long on delivering because I just loved chatting with everyone!” Linda chuckles. Soon after, Alameda Friendly Visitors (AFV) was formed to address exactly what Linda was providing - companionship for people who were isolated, lived alone or simply wanted to meet a new friend. Linda immediately joined AFV and has been volunteering for the program ever since. “My first visitee was Melba, who I visited with for more than 10 years. I’ve sometimes had four visitees at a time. I’m so grateful for all the friendships and wonderful memories I’ve made,” says Linda. As a Friendly Visitor, Linda’s primary goal is to make her visitees laugh and to bring some joy to their lives. She’s done that and more by taking people out to lunch, organizing card games, playing bingo, and bringing small holiday decorations and treats along with her positive and generous spirit. “I recently developed my own ‘music therapy’ by putting together playlists to cheer up some of my visitees in senior facilities,” adds Linda. Making her community a better place is a “win-win” she says. “Being a part of the AFV program has made me so grateful in my life. It’s brought me so much happiness.” Her advice for anyone thinking about volunteering? “You have more than enough time. You can learn so much from others and your life will be so much richer!”

FRIENDLY VISITORS GOES TO THE DOGS

Happy to share a lot of wet kisses and tail wags, Phoebe, a five-year-old black Labrador Retriever, is our newest Friendly Visitor volunteer. Her owner and caretaker, Jill Staten, a regular AMOW volunteer, is sharing her sweet dog with those in need of a friendly visit. The Canine Good Citizen certified pooch is making visits to seniors at home and in care facilities to bring smiles and comfort, easing anxiety and stress to those isolated, ill or alone.

KOFMAN BECOMES AMOW BOARD PRESIDENT

Long time AMOW board member, Edward Kofman, is assuming the presidency of the board once again. Having served on the board since 1990, Kofman served as the AMOW Treasurer from 1992-1999 and then as board president from 2000-2007. During his last terms as president, AMOW continued the growth of the program and our fundraising efforts and celebrated its 30th Anniversary of promoting independence to our homebound neighbors. In 2004, with guidance from former Executive Director, Rosemary Reilly, AMOW further expanded our services with the introduction of the AFV program to try to alleviate the feelings of isolation of our predominantly senior neighbors (although open to all ages).

Kofman remarked, “I am excited to come in again as president at a time when we are closing in on commemorating our 50th anniversary next year. Our organization has evolved over the years and we are determined to continue to grow so that we may better meet the needs of our community now and in the years to come.”
